Summary of Duties: Assigns, reviews, and evaluates the work of employees engaged in payroll preparation; applies sound supervisory principles and techniques in building and maintaining an effective work force; fulfills affirmative action responsibilities; and does related work.

Distinguishing Features: An employee of this class either has responsibility for supervising payroll preparation in a large department of the City government, or supervises and assists in auditing payroll amounts and analyzing and resolving discrepancies on all City payrolls in the Controller's Office. A Payroll Supervisor must be thoroughly familiar with Administrative Code, MOU, Charter and ordinance provisions, and the rules and procedures pertaining to payrolls of the department in which an incumbent is employed. The position is one of considerable trust and responsibility in the formulation of recommendations which serve as a basis for important actions.

Incumbents in the class of Payroll Supervisor, as bona fide supervisors, are distinguished from lead workers in that they are responsible for the performance of the full range of supervisory activities including the application of discipline, processing and resolution of grievances, and evaluation of performance.

Examples of Duties: A Payroll Supervisor:

- Supervises preparation or audit of payroll documents in a large department or in the Controller's Office.
- Supervises the verification of active employee and retiree payrolls and maintenance of personnel documents for compliance with personnel ordinance authority.
- Processes and verifies mileage and carfare documents.
- Reconciles department payroll data with Controller's payroll records.
- Maintains check number control and cost accounting records and supervises the maintenance of filing systems on personnel and salary ordinances, Council resolutions, Civil Service Commission Rules, and payroll correction letters.
- Advises supervisors and others regarding payroll problems and procedures.
- Supervises maintenance of personnel, vacation, employee mileage, time reporting, injury, sick time, and automobile insurance records.
- Trains employees in proper timekeeping methods, personnel documents, and payroll procedures.
- Acts as liaison with offices in coordinating payroll reporting procedures.
- Balances and audits the checks to be issued to deduction groups.
Arranges working schedules, vacations, and time off.
Evaluates quantity and quality of work of subordinates.
Instructs departments in Controller's automated processing capabilities.
Develops work simplification procedures.
Assists employees in preparing for promotion as described in the City's Affirmative Action Program.
