EL PUEBLO HISTORIC MUSEUM DIRECTOR, 2394

Summary of Duties: Plans, directs, and coordinates the operation of the El Pueblo Historic Monument interpretive program; assigns, reviews and evaluates the work of museum employees engaged in historic research, cataloging of artifacts, operation of exhibits, and educational program development for the general public; applies sound supervision principles and techniques in building and maintaining an effective work force; fulfills affirmative action responsibilities; and does related work.

Distinguishing Features: The El Pueblo Historic Museum Director is responsible for planning and organizing all activities of the El Pueblo de Los Angeles Historic Monument interpretive program including various public participation programs and historic research activities. Assignments are received in general terms and evaluated on the basis of public acceptance and participation in museum and other interpretive activities. The work requires the exercise of administrative, managerial and supervisory expertise and expert knowledge in museum programs, collections, and exhibit development.

An El Pueblo Historic Museum Director differs from curator classes by having overall responsibility for the entire collection and program as well as the operation of a museum facility.

An El Pueblo Historic Museum Director differs from directors of other museum facilities because of the specific expertise required to operate a representative historic site museum facility.

An incumbent in the class of El Pueblo Historic Museum Director, as a bona fide supervisor, is distinguished from lead workers in being responsible for the performance of the full range of supervisory activities including: application of discipline, processing and resolution of grievances, evaluation of performance and approval of time off requests.

Examples of Duties: An El Pueblo Historic Museum Director, through subordinate personnel:
* Directs and coordinates historical research and the preparation of historic exhibits;
* Manages and catalogues collections;

* Speaks and gives demonstrations on historic subjects before clubs, schools and other organizations;
* Acts as Executive Director for, and coordinates the activities of, El Pueblo Historic Monument's volunteer organizations;
* Appears before community and other groups to stimulate and promote El Pueblo Historic Museum activities;
* Develops relations with other cultural and historic institutions, such as universities, private and public libraries, and museums, and promotes interest in the interpretive program through the donation of material and expertise;
* Writes magazine and newspaper articles and speaks before interested groups on the City's history and El Pueblo's programs and exhibits;
* Approves and directs the construction of temporary and permanent exhibits;
* Supervises studies of techniques, methods, and research to effect improved functioning and increased public interest in museum operation, programming and exhibits;
* Directs the compilation and analysis of statistics on attendance and programming and initiates programs to effect greater economy and improved program content;
* Directs the investigation and resolution of complaints from the public on museum operation;
* Advises management on activities of tenants, employees or contractors which may damage the fabric of historic buildings.
* Prepares the annual budget for personnel, supplies and equipment for the History Division of the El Pueblo Historic Monument;
* Approves the ordering, assigning and issuing of supplies and equipment;
* Initiates requests for repair and custodial services for museum facilities, and evaluates results;
* Prepares records and reports relating to interpretive activity;
* Communicates equal employment/affirmative action information to employees;
* Applies job-related criteria in selecting, orienting, assigning, training, counseling, evaluating, and disciplining subordinates;
* Assists employees in preparing for promotion as described in the City Affirmative Action Program.
May occasionally be assigned to other duties for training purposes or to meet technological changes or emergencies.
