Summary of Duties: Assigns, reviews and evaluates the work of a staff engaged in the administration of diverse art activities and programs including community and public arts, architectural design and review, cultural grant programs, and historic preservation or performs professional staff work in the above programs; applies sound supervisory principles and techniques in building and maintaining an effective work force; fulfills affirmative action responsibilities; and does related work.

Distinguishing Features: As an entering journey-level professional staff member, an Arts Manager exercises independent judgment in handling details and specific assignments within standards and policies defined by the department and prepares comprehensive reports to management on assigned tasks. May assume supervisory responsibility for the work of Arts Associates and clerical staff members within a division and oversee a small section of a division. Supervision received consists primarily of a review of the results of an employee's work, rather than a detailed check of work in progress.

As an experienced Arts Manager, personally performs the more difficult assignments and/or directs the activities of a division of the department and will supervise professional and nonprofessional staff in accomplishing divisional goals that have department and city-wide applications. Assignments are normally given verbally or in writing in terms of broad objectives or complex problems. Incumbents receive minimal direct supervision and results are evaluated by the level of community awareness, success, and acceptance of the various arts programs.

An Arts Manager may act as an advisor to the General Manager on implementation of the Cultural Masterplan to promote arts and culture in the City of Los Angeles. An Arts Manager may serve as departmental subject matter expert on architectural design review issues and act as liaison to other public agencies and private firms to administer selection and installation of public art projects, cultural planning and arts education.
