On the following pages are descriptions of each competency, including a definition, the level of the competency required for the class (italicized, bolded, and underlined), examples of behavioral indicators, and satisfactory and superior performance levels.
6. ATTENTION TO DETAIL – Extremely careful in addressing all aspects of each work assignment in order to produce “completed staff work” and/or avoid any negative outcomes.

Level of Competency Required by Job:

Level 1: Ensure all aspects of work assignment are completed as directed.

Level 2: Verify that each aspect of work assignment is properly completed; make logical inference regarding additional activities that may need to be performed to produce “completed staff work.”

Level 3: Include evaluation of final work/work product in its accomplishment; make adjustments as possible to improve.

Examples of Behavioral Indicators:

- Carefully checks all aspects of work for completion and accuracy before submitting.
- Identifies errors (for example, typo’s, computations, measurements, application of laws/rules/policies) and corrects them prior to submitting.
- Cross-checks work against available resources.
- Sets up a means of checks and balances to ensure work accuracy.
- Considers changes in final work product to ensure usability by recipient.
- Completes all revisions upon request.

Performance Levels:

Satisfactory
Ensures that each task accomplished represents “completed staff work.” No remaining details/inconsistencies for others to address.

Superior
All aspects of each task completed are verified to be correct. Identifies any foreseeable consequences of work that may need to be addressed and does so.
14. COMPOSURE – Maintains composure in difficult circumstances.

Level of Competency Required by Job:

- Level 1: Display self-confidence in interactions with others; does not undermine own efforts or immediately succumb to pressure.
- Level 2: Remain self-assured and calm when challenged or subject to abuse.
- Level 3: Exude confidence in a wide variety of circumstances made difficult by many potent, diverse factors.

Examples of Behavioral Indicators:

- Maintains calm, composed demeanor in all work situations.
- Restates position when appropriate.
- Asserts viewpoints when others ignore or debase them.
