COMPETENCY MODEL FOR
AQUARIST (2400)

The following competencies have been identified as those that best separate superior from satisfactory job performance in the class of AQUARIST. (Numbers refers to the order of the competencies in the Competency Bank.)

3. Judgment and Decision Making
20. Job Knowledge
21. Technology Application
23. Equipment Operation
33. Interpersonal Skills
35. Teamwork
47. Written Communication
48. Shares Knowledge and Information

On the following pages are descriptions of each competency, including a definition, the level of the competency required for the class (italicized, bolded, and underlined), examples of behavioral indicators, and satisfactory and superior performance levels.
3. JUDGMENT AND DECISION MAKING – Accurately assesses situations, seeks new information if necessary, and applies all available information to reach sound conclusions/formulate effective response.

Level of Competency Required by Job:

Level 1: Training and guidelines needed to respond to immediate situations within very specific function are provided (or supervisor available to assist).

Level 2: General information and guidance to assist in responding to a variety of situations across a range of circumstances are provided.

Level 3: Little guidance available for responding to a wide range of complex situations with far-reaching and/or enduring consequences.

Examples of Behavioral Indicators:

- Effectively responds to atypical situations.
- Asks questions or otherwise obtains additional relevant information to make a decision.
- Formulates a decision and necessary actions based on available facts.
- Correctly infers appropriate response based on information provided and existing policies, personal experience, and/or consultation with others.
- Discusses conclusions/possible responses with others before taking action as necessary.
- Considers impact of decisions on all affected parties.

Performance Levels:

Satisfactory
Correctly assesses routine and unusual situations and reaches appropriate conclusions for actions needed. Obtains additional information and/or consults with others as necessary.

Superior
Evaluates new situations accurately to establish an appropriate response or plan of action. Recognizes the impact on all affected parties, as well as the possible ramifications and/or repercussions of setting a precedent.
20. JOB KNOWLEDGE – Knows information required to perform a specific job. Includes both widely available courses of study (for example, chemistry, human resources management, graphic arts) and City-specific information (parking regulation and ticketing practices; purchasing procedures; provisions of the City Charter).

Level of Competency Required by Job:

Level 1: Knowledge is concrete, factual, and/or procedural and may be defined by the organization. Situations in which it is applied are quite consistent.

Level 2: Knowledge is substantive and may be defined by an external trade, field, or profession. Situations in which it is applied vary and, as such, require breadth and depth of understanding.

Level 3: Knowledge is abstract, conceptual, and/or complex and may be supported by a well-defined academic discipline or authoritative sources (e.g., laws, ordinances, government guidelines/regulations/codes). Situations in which it is applied may vary greatly or be novel.

Examples of Behavioral Indicators:

- Performs work correctly/avoids technical (job content related) errors.
- Answers technical questions about work accurately.
- Asks few technical questions about the performance of routine work activities.
- Offers advice (“coaching”) to new employees regarding their work.
- Develops training programs for other employees.
- Sought out as a source of information by others.

Performance Levels:

Satisfactory

Sufficient job knowledge to perform work correctly independently. Answers technical questions about work correctly.

Superior

Expertise in technical job information sufficient to serve as a resource to others. May develop training manuals/programs and/or give internal and/or external presentations related to work.
Job Knowledge Areas

Technical Competencies

1. Knowledge of physical and chemical factors necessary to create a healthy aquatic environment such as proper water quality, lighting, and substrates sufficient to support the health and wellbeing of a wide variety of live aquatic animal and plant species.

2. Knowledge of husbandry methods used to care for aquatic plants and animals such as amphibians, reptiles, fish, invertebrates, and algae sufficient to ensure the highest quality health and welfare of the collection.

3. Knowledge of ecology and biology of aquatic life including community dynamics, prey and predator relations, and nutritional needs sufficient to create a meaningful and healthy aquarium exhibit.

4. Knowledge of locations, techniques, and equipment used to safely collect aquatic plants and animals such as tide pools, scuba diving, hand nets, traps, rods and reels sufficient to capture live organisms in a safe manner which minimizes injury to targeted species and their habitats.

5. Knowledge of mitigation practices and methods for common aquatic animal diseases and parasites such as using disinfectants, treating diseases under veterinary supervision, and quarantining practices sufficient to prevent the spread of aquatic disease and maintain the highest quality of health and welfare of the collection.
21. TECHNOLOGY APPLICATION – Correctly applies technology as required on the job; conceptualizes improvements in work through introducing and/or enhancing use of technology.

Level of Competency Required by Job:

Level 1: Expert in the use of technology required for own job. May identify additional applications for currently used technology to enhance own work and/or work of others.

Level 2: Identify additional technology to be applied to improve own work and/or work of others and/or enhanced use of current technology to improve the operations of an entire function or department.

Level 3: Identify new technology application to improve/enhance work of an entire function, department, or organization.

Examples of Behavioral Indicators:

- Demonstrates mastery of technical applications required for current work.
- Suggests additional applications of existing technology that improve productivity.
- Identifies new technology that can be applied to improve existing operations.
- Provides convincing justification for investment in new technology versus anticipated benefits.
- Presents compelling arguments to justify purchase of existing software (with or without modification) versus in-house development.

Performance Levels:

Satisfactory

Knows and correctly applies current technology as required on the job. Extends use of current technology to improve efficiency of accomplishing additional tasks.

Superior

Recognizes opportunities to apply technology to improve work processes in a function, department, or the entire organization. Identifies and justifies specific technology for specific uses.
Technology Application Areas

1. Application of hardware and software tools used for recording aquarium/specimen conditions such as TRACKS and ZIMS sufficient to keep record of animals on hand, make sure all animals are fed appropriately, and ensure the health and wellbeing of a wide variety of specimens across different aquarium exhibits.

2. Application of the technology used in life support systems such as chlorine injectors and water monitoring devices sufficient to analyze and maintain the life support systems as well as the habitats which they reside in.
23. EQUIPMENT OPERATION – Operates specialized equipment in performance of job duties.

Level of Competency Required by Job:

Level 1: Operate equipment based on on-the-job training.

Level 2: Operate equipment based on attendance at a training program and practice.

Level 3: Operate equipment for which in-depth, complex training was required and which may require certification.

Examples of Behavioral Indicators:

- Operates equipment proficiently.
- Operates equipment with strict adherence to safety procedures.
- Understands the operation of equipment used on the job and correctly answers questions about it.
- Willingly participates in any training necessary to maintain up-to-date knowledge of equipment operation.

Performance Levels:

Satisfactory

Operates equipment safely and with a high degree of proficiency.

Superior

Operates equipment with extreme proficiency and correctly answers questions about its operation. Trains and/or coaches others in the operation of equipment.
Equipment Operation Areas

1. Knowledge of electrical and mechanical components of aquatic life support systems including pumps, filters, UV sterilizers, ozone systems, and fractionators sufficient to conduct routine maintenance, operations, and repair of such systems.

2. Knowledge of equipment, materials, methods, and techniques used to construct aquatic habitats within an aquarium exhibit such as use of plumbing, adhesives, plastic materials (Acrylic, ABS, etc.), and lighting sufficient to fabricate a habitat and life support system for various aquatic species.

3. Knowledge of scuba diving equipment and its proper operation, including wetsuits, masks, fins, buoyancy control devices, and regulators sufficient to safely breathe and navigate when underwater for the purpose of maintaining exhibits and/or collecting aquatic plants or animals.
33. INTERPERSONAL SKILLS – Interacts effectively and courteously with others.

Level of Competency Required by Job:

Level 1: Interact with members of the workgroup, supervision, and/or the public in a cordial, service-oriented manner.

Level 2: Interact across department lines and with appointed City officials, and/or members of the public, at times under adversarial circumstances, in a cordial, respectful manner.

Level 3: Interact with appointed and elected City officials, department heads, representatives of external organizations, and/or the media in a cordial, effective manner.

Examples of Behavioral Indicators:

• Works well with others toward mutual objectives.
• Does not arouse hostility in others.
• “Disagrees without being disagreeable.”
• Elicits acceptance/cooperation from others.
• Affords all individuals respect, regardless of their role or status.
• Effectively addresses concerns of politicians or others who may have their “own agenda.”

35. TEAMWORK – Interacts effectively with others to achieve mutual objectives; readily offers assistance to others to facilitate their goal accomplishment.

Level of Competency Required by Job:

Level 1: Work effectively as a member of a work unit or project team. Readily offer assistance to others when they have too much work or have too little.

Level 2: Work effectively as a team member in which different people have different roles/responsibilities and perspectives. Identify points for collaboration with co-workers; readily offer and request assistance.

Level 3: Work effectively as a part of an interdependent team (your work gets done only if the work of the whole team is done; evaluation of team performance is more relevant than individual performance).

Examples of Behavioral Indicators:

- Discusses work-related matters with co-workers.
- Offers and requests assistance readily.
- Offers and is receptive to suggestions.
- Identifies problems with workflow that will prevent team from accomplishing its goals.
- Provides constructive criticism and feedback to team members to improve overall functioning of team.
- Assigns credit to team for accomplishments.

Performance Levels:

Satisfactory

Cooperates with co-workers and fulfills responsibilities as a member of a project team. Maintains a focus on common objectives and offers and requests assistance readily.

Superior

Sees the team as a whole; acknowledges that performance of the team is what in reality is evaluated by others. If anyone fails, everyone on the team fails.
47. WRITTEN COMMUNICATION – Communicates effectively in writing.

Level of Competency Required by Job:

Level 1: Write notes/e-mails. Completes forms with some open-ended responses (sentences).

Level 2: Write letters, articles/reports, and/or detailed descriptions of activities/occurrences.

Level 3: Write lengthy reports, instruction manuals, in-depth analyses/reviews of complex issues and/or articles for publication. Reviews the written work of others.

Examples of Behavioral Indicators:

- Writing includes the necessary information to convey the intended message.
- Sufficiently few errors in spelling, punctuation, grammar to not interfere with the intended message or distract the reader.
- Little editing or re-writing needed to produce a final product.
- Composes materials efficiently.
- Information is presented in a well organized manner.
- Tone and degree of formality are appropriate to the purpose and audience.

48. SHARES KNOWLEDGE AND INFORMATION – Conveys all information relevant to each involved party in a thorough and timely manner.

Level of Competency Required by Job:

Level 1: Provide job-related information as it becomes available to others who are likely to need it or to whom it might be helpful.

Level 2: Keep all involved parties informed of work/project progress and other new information. Tailors content, level of detail, and timing of information provided to the perspective of each recipient.

Level 3: Recognize different needs for different information and provide all affected parties with a description of the “big picture” as well as the breadth and detail of information relevant to their perspective.

Examples of Behavioral Indicators:

- Provides thorough explanations with all relevant details.
- Uses multiple means of communicating (e.g., e-mail, telephone, meetings).
- Provides status reports of work/project progress to all involved parties.
- Informs others of changes at the earliest feasible time.
- Uses multiple addressees and “copies” others so all parties see exactly the same information and know who already has been informed.
- Draws from job knowledge and work experience to provide thorough descriptions and explanations.

Performance Levels:

Satisfactory

Readily communicates new, job-related information to all employees to whom it is relevant. Provides a level of detail and explanation appropriate to the recipient.

Superior

Ensures that all involved parties are provided the maximum amount of information feasible in as timely a manner as possible to facilitate work/project status. Shares job knowledge and experience to serve as a mentor or coach to others.
