20. JOB KNOWLEDGE – Knows information required to perform a specific job. Includes both widely available courses of study (for example, chemistry, human resources management, graphic arts) and City-specific information (parking regulation and ticketing practices; purchasing procedures; provisions of the City Charter).

Level of Competency Required by Job:

Level 1: Knowledge is concrete, factual, and/or procedural and may be defined by the organization. Situations in which it is applied are quite consistent.

Level 2: Knowledge is substantive and may be defined by an external trade, field, or profession. Situations in which it is applied vary and, as such, require breadth and depth of understanding.

Level 3: Knowledge is abstract, conceptual, and/or complex and may be supported by a well-defined academic discipline or authoritative sources (e.g., laws, ordinances, government guidelines/regulations/codes). Situations in which it is applied may vary greatly or be novel.

Examples of Behavioral Indicators:

- Performs work correctly/avoids technical (job content related) errors.
- Answers technical questions about work accurately.
- Asks few technical questions about the performance of routine work activities.
- Offers advice (“coaching”) to new employees regarding their work.
- Develops training programs for other employees.
- Sought out as a source of information by others.

Performance Levels:

Satisfactory

Sufficient job knowledge to perform work correctly independently. Answers technical questions about work correctly.

Superior

Expertise in technical job information sufficient to serve as a resource to others. May develop training manuals/programs and/or give internal and/or external presentations related to work.
Job Knowledge Areas

1. Knowledge of state, local, and Department rules, regulations, and codes pertaining to refuse collection and vehicle use, such as those found in the Bureau of Sanitation Safety Rules and Training Manual, California Vehicle Code, and Solid Resources Collection Division Rules and Regulations sufficient to deliver instruction and training to new and current employees, evaluate and discipline employees, and enforce safety rules.

2. Knowledge of equipment and mechanical features on refuse collection trucks, such as attached hydraulic equipment, packing mechanisms, tailgate opening and closing processes on diesel alternative fuel vehicles, front-loading, rear-loading, hoist-body, push-out, and automation sufficient to operate the equipment, instruct and evaluate new and current employees on how to safely load, unload, and transport the refuse load, and enforce safety rules.

3. Knowledge of Department forms pertaining to refuse collection truck activity, such as Form 6541 and Fleet Services/General Services 271 (FS/GS 271) sufficient to document daily events, equipment issues and repairs, and keep records of work activities.
35. TEAMWORK – Interacts effectively with others to achieve mutual objectives, readily offers assistance to others to facilitate their goal accomplishment.

Level of Competency Required by Job:

Level 1: Work effectively as a member of a work unit or project team. Readily offer assistance to others when they have too much work or have too little.

Level 2: Work effectively as a team member in which different people have different roles/responsibilities and perspectives. Identify points for collaboration with co-workers; readily offer and request assistance.

Level 3: Work effectively as a part of an interdependent team (your work gets done only if the work of the whole team is done; evaluation of team performance is more relevant than individual performance).

Examples of Behavioral Indicators:

- Discusses work-related matters with co-workers.
- Offers and requests assistance readily.
- Offers and is receptive to suggestions.
- Identifies problems with workflow that will prevent team from accomplishing its goals.
- Provides constructive criticism and feedback to team members to improve overall functioning of team.
- Assigns credit to team for accomplishments.

Performance Levels:

Satisfactory

Cooperates with co-workers and fulfills responsibilities as a member of a project team. Maintains a focus on common objectives and offers and requests assistance readily.

Superior

Sees the team as a whole; acknowledges that performance of the team is what in reality is evaluated by others. If anyone fails, everyone on the team fails.
36. EMOTIONAL MATURITY – Maintains a calm and task-oriented approach to work even under circumstances of conflict or hostility.

Level of Competency Required by Job:

Level 1:  Remain focused on the task at hand when interacting with unpleasant or uncooperative people, circumstances are frustrating, the workload is high, or other conditions of the work environment are less than optimal.

Level 2:  Seek effective resolution to complaints/criticisms; recognize that complaints/criticisms often are not personal, but a reflection of frustration or disagreement on the part of others.

Level 3:  Maintain neutrality and effective performance even in the face of unjustified challenge or direct criticism in a public forum.

Examples of Behavioral Indicators:

- Maintains a calm and focused demeanor.
- Continues to listen to others with whom conflict or disagreement has occurred.
- Does not display excessive emotionality: yell, shout, scream, cry, or use profanity.

Superior

Maintains businesslike demeanor and continues to attempt to address the issue at hand even when faced with personal attacks, unjustified accusations, or other inappropriate behavior from others.
40. CREDIBILITY – Is truthful and sincere; objectively and clearly provides all pertinent information rather than being vague, omitting negative information or only stating what listeners “want to hear.”

Level of Competency Required by Job:

Level 1: Freely and openly share accurate job-related information with coworkers.

Level 2: Provide complete, accurate information to other City employees and members of the public.

Level 3: Represent department to the Mayors’ Office, City Council, City Commissions, and/or department heads, and/or to external organizations, professional associations, and/or the media.

Examples of Behavioral Indicators:

- Admits mistakes.
- Information provided is consistent (not contradictory or stating different things to different people).
- Answers questions directly and thoroughly.
- Shares credit for achievements.
- Acts in the best interest of the organization, not self interest.

Performance Levels:

Satisfactory

“Tells the complete story” from the onset. Is forthcoming with full information when questioned. Statements are consistent. Readily admits mistakes and gives credit to others.

Superior

Information provided is complete and accurate, and includes any negative information or information contrary to self interest. Does not attempt to be vague or put a “spin” on negative information to make it appear more positive.
45. ORAL COMMUNICATION – Communicates orally in a clear, concise, and effective manner.

Level of Competency Required by Job:

Level 1: Exchange specific, job-related information orally with others in the immediate work environment or via telephone and/or radio.

Level 2: Obtain/provide/present general and/or job-specific information orally to a variety of others in various situations.

Level 3: Obtain/provide/present a diverse array of information orally at varying levels of complexity to a wide range of others across many different situations and circumstances.

Examples of Behavioral Indicators:

- Rarely must repeat information in response to questions.
- Refrains from use of unnecessary words, phrases, or jargon.
- Provides a level of detail appropriate to the situation (avoids too much or too little detail).
- Speaks at a level appropriate to the audience in terms of terminology, sentence structure, and simplicity/complexity of ideas expressed.
- Uses words with precision (vocabulary) to convey exact information.

Performance Levels:

Satisfactory

Speaks clearly and audibly, providing the appropriate information and level of detail. Typically conveys the message on the first attempt. Answers questions accurately and directly.

Superior

Speech is direct and to the point. Speaks convincingly and with authority when appropriate. Maintains sensitivity to the audience while providing thorough information with the appropriate level of detail through the use of precise language.
47. WRITTEN COMMUNICATION – Communicates effectively in writing.

Level of Competency Required by Job:

Level 1: Write notes/e-mails. Completes forms with some open-ended responses (sentences).

Level 2: Write letters, articles/reports, and/or detailed descriptions of activities/occurrences.

Level 3: Write lengthy reports, instruction manuals, in-depth analyses/reviews of complex issues and/or articles for publication. Reviews the written work of others.

Examples of Behavioral Indicators:

60. VISION – Conceptualizes and conveys an ideal future in a way that creates employee acceptance and motivates employees to achieve it.

Level of Competency Required by Job:

Level 1: Envision a more efficient operational unit in which productivity is increased and product quality/quality of service is improved, and, at the same time, persistent problems and other frustrations for employees are eliminated to create a more pleasant work environment. Convey vision to employees and take all possible steps to make the vision a reality.

Level 2: Envision a more efficient, better coordinated function in which organizational barriers and other factors that detract from performance are eliminated and the opportunity for gratifying individual contribution is enhanced. Convey vision to employees in a way that motivates them to support and help achieve vision.

Level 3: Envision a more efficient and effective organization that is well recognized as an exemplary “organizational citizen” and an employer of choice. Identify strategies to achieve vision, and convey vision and strategies to staff in a way that enlists their enthusiastic support and commitment to achieving the vision.

Examples of Behavioral Indicators:

- Identifies and articulates an ideal future state.
- Considers both organizational and staff perspectives when developing vision for the future.
- Conveys vision for future to staff in a way that provides concrete description of the ideal and makes it seem achievable.
- Presents strategies and secures resources to achieve vision or, alternatively, identifies specific steps to be taken.
- Establishes responsibility and accountability for required actions.
- Recognizes, and conveys to staff, that ultimately this is a process, (a feature of organizational functioning), not a project.
